

Meet our experts in Katowice

From 3 to 14 December 2018, adelphi's experts will be in Katowice for the COP24 discussions. Together with German Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation, Building and Nuclear Safety (BMUB), the EU, GIZ, the German Federal Foreign Office, and others adelphi convenes and participates in several side events at the COP24.

Contact for journalists: Christopher Stolzenberg, stolzenberg@adelphi.de

Climate Adaptation & Climate Diplomacy

Walter Kahlenborn is a co-founder and Managing Director of adelphi. For more than 20 years, his core topics of research and consultancy work are climate adaptation and standardization, digitalization and sustainability.

kahlenborn@adelphi.de

Dennis Tänzler is adelphi's Director International Climate Policy. His research has been focusing on climate and energy policies for more than 18 years. He has been advising high-ranking policymakers on the national, European and international level.

taenzler@adelphi.de

Carbon Markets & Emissions Trading

Dr Constanze Haug is a senior expert in international and European climate policy. The key focus of her current work is the international carbon market, and emissions trading in particular. She is the Head of Secretariat of the International Carbon Action Partnership (ICAP).

haug@adelphi.de

Marissa Santikarn specializes in different fields of climate and energy. She is working on in the design, implementation and linking of emissions trading systems at the office of the International Carbon Action Partnership (ICAP).

santikarn@adelphi.de

Stephanie La Hoz Theuer specializes in international and national climate policy, particularly carbon pricing and emissions trading. Stephanie is also a member of the Secretariat of the International Carbon Action Partnership (ICAP).

lahoztheuer@adelphi.de

Green Finance & Sustainability Entrepreneurship

Mikael P. Henzler is a co-founder and Managing Director of adelphi. The main topics of his research and consultancy work are green finance, energy policy as well as sustainable business and resource efficiency in development contexts.

henzler@adelphi.de

Jonas Restle specializes in the work areas of Green Finance, Energy and Sustainable Business. In his work, he focuses on strengthening renewable energy initiatives and linking them with the private sector and market development.

restle@adelphi.de

Maggie Sloan specializes in the work areas of sustainability entrepreneurship, green economy and resource efficiency. She is supporting SEED with the implementation and communication of eco-inclusive enterprise support.

sloan@adelphi.de

Meet us at these side events

4 December

17.00-18.15

Benelux Pavilion

When Worlds Meet: Interactions between Domestic Carbon Pricing, UNFCCC and CORSIA

Organizer: International Carbon Action Partnership (ICAP)

Stephanie La Hoz Theuer will moderate the panel.

5 December

10.00-13.00

EU Pavilion,
Room Brussels

Potential of Carbon Pricing in Transition to Low-Carbon Economy

Organizers: ICAP in cooperation with the Institute for Climate Economics, Ecofys, Climate Focus, Carbon Market Watch, World Bank Group, Agence Française de Développement, IETA, CDP, The Generation Foundation, Climate Outreach

Stephanie La Hoz Theuer will moderate one of three panels.

10 December

11.00-12.30

IETA Pavilion

A Guide to Linking Emissions Trading Systems

Organizer: International Carbon Action Partnership (ICAP)

Marissa Santikarn will join the panel.

13 December

10.30-12.00

EU Pavilion,
Room Vienna

Climate, Peace and Security: Progress toward a Preventive Diplomacy

Organizer: European External Action Service in cooperation with adelphi

Dennis Tänzler will moderate the panel.

13 December

13.00-14.15

NDCP Pavilion

Financing Climate Change Adaptation and Resilience in Developing and Emerging Countries

Organizer: Climate Policy Initiative (CPI)

Dennis Tänzler will join the panel.

13 December

13.45-14.45

Side Event Room 2,
"Pieniny"

Broadening and Deepening: Experiences Supporting the Consideration and Adoption of Carbon Pricing

Organizers: UNFCCC CI-ACA, World Bank PMR, ICAP

Constanze Haug will join the panel.

Meet us at these side events

14 December

11.30-13.00

Side Event Room 4,
“Warmia”

Using International Standards for driving action, performance and transition on climate change

Organizer: International Organization for Standardization (ISO), International Accreditation Forum Inc. (IAF), The Institute of Environmental Management and Assessment* (IEMA)

Walter Kahlenborn will join the panel with an input on climate adaptation standard ISO 14091.

14 December

12.00-13.30

German Pavilion

Building new alliances around climate and security: Germany’s initiative for the UN Security Council

Organizers: German Federal Foreign Office in cooperation with adelphi

14 December

16.30-18.30

EU Pavilion,
Room Vienna

Climate change adaptation and resilience – the developing role of European and International Standards and the related Green financial instruments and taxonomies

Organizers: International Organization for Standardization (ISO), European Committee For Standardization/, European Committee for Electrotechnical Standardization (CEN/CENELEC)

Walter Kahlenborn will join the panel with an input on climate adaptation standards (ISO 14090 and ISO 14091).